Lydia E. Acevedo-Bierly, CEO

Who we are:

A to Z Cleaning Services is a residential and commercial housekeeping service provider for the Tri-Valley area. We have been providing cleaning services to the East Bay area for 12 years. We are fully bonded and insured, giving our clients confidence and piece of mind.

Services and Availability:

We provide flexible scheduling for our clients, including weekly, bi-weekly, every three weeks, monthly, move-in, move-out, pre-party and post-party clean-up.

Our services include, but are not limited to:

- Wipe-down/disinfect- countertops, appliances, windows/window sills, cabinets, doors, mirrors, bathtubs, toilets, blinds/shutters, and more
- Vacuum or mop- carpet, hardwood, tile, linoleum, including stairways
- General dusting- cob webs, picture frames, and basic light fixtures

Who can benefit from our services:

- Busy professionals
- Single parents
- New moms
- Bachelors
- People unhappy with their current services
- Seniors
- People with health issues
- Construction companies
- Apartment complex management

Why you should choose us:

We are dependable and honest. Most of our staff members have been loyal, happy team players since we opened 12 years ago. And happy employees make hard-working employees. Our attention to detail stands out above the rest; we get the corners other companies cut. Unlike many other housekeeping companies, we are fully bonded and insured. This means you don't need to worry about your liability in the event of an injury.

Our goal is to provide superior, professional services to our clients, so they may enjoy quality time in their homes and their lives in general.
